

Transnational Dispute Resolution in an Increasingly Digitalized World

ONLINE CONFERENCE

Thursday 24 March 2022
9h30 - 16h50 CET

Hosted by the Center For the Future of Dispute Resolution

Organizing committee:

Prof. Maud Piers & Prof. Wannes Vandenbussche

For more information, see

<https://www.ugent.be/re/mpor/cfdr/en/colloquium2022>

09h30 - 09h35

Introduction and Welcoming Address

Prof. Maud Piers & Prof. Wannes Vandenbussche

I. A CRITICAL LOOK AT CURRENT DIGITAL AND REGULATORY DEVELOPMENTS IN THE EUROPEAN E-JUSTICE LANDSCAPE

09h35 - 09h50

The Metaverse of Civil Justice in Europe

Dr. Nicolas Kyriakides - University of Nicosia, Cyprus

09h50 - 10h05

Platform Justice: Move Fast and Break Fair Trial?

Prof. dr. Eric Tjong Tjin Tai - Tilburg University, the Netherlands

Ass. Prof. Elena Allina Ontanu - Tilburg University, the Netherlands

Paul Frenken - Tilburg University, the Netherlands

10h05 - 10h20

E-Justice ODR Scheme – A Plan of Action

Prof. Federica Cassarosa - European University Institute, Italy

Sbynek Laeble - Lawyer at PRK Partners Prague, Czech Republic

10h20 - 10h35

Critical Evaluation of New Council of Europe Guidelines Concerning Digital Courts

Prof. Marek Świerczyński - University of Cardinal Stefan Wyszyński, Poland

10h35 - 10h55

Discussion

II. HORSES FOR COURSES: NEW TECHNOLOGIES CALL FOR INNOVATION IN DISPUTE RESOLUTION

11h10 - 11h25

Avenues for Embedding Digital Dispute Resolution in Digital Asset Transactions: Looking Beyond the UK Paradigm

Assoc. Prof. Georgios Pavlidis - Neapolis University Pafos, Cyprus

11h25 - 11h40

ADR Methods in Intellectual Property Disputes Involving the Use of New Technologies

Dominik Świątkowski - University of Warsaw, Poland

11h40 - 11h55

When Law Meets Finance: The Current Status, Development Path, and Legal Obstacles of Chinese Online Financial Arbitration for Fintech Disputes

Ge (Luna) Zhang - JSD Candidate - Washington University in St. Louis, US

11h55 - 12h10

Discussion

III. COVID-19: FAST-FORWARD TO A NEW ERA OF VIRTUAL HEARINGS IN ARBITRATION AND LITIGATION

13h00 - 13h05

Opening of Afternoon Session

13h05 - 13h20

Critical Reflections on Dispute Resolution during the Covid-19 Pandemic: An Indian experience

Prof. Jimmy Jose - Symbiosis Law School, India

13h20-13h35

Virtual Hearing in Times of Pandemic: More Help Than Hindrance? A Chinese Approach in Conducting Arbitration Online

Monica Chan - PhD candidate - The University of Macau

13h35 - 13h50

Due Process Rights in Arbitration: Remote Hearings during the Pandemic

Dr. Erman Eroglu - Social Sciences University of Ankara, Turkey

13h50 - 14h05

Discussion

VI. CHALLENGES AND OPPORTUNITIES FOR AN INCREASINGLY DIGITALIZED ARBITRATION PROCEDURE

14h20 - 14h35

Admissibility of Illegally Obtained Electronic Evidence in International Arbitration

Jurgis Bartkus - PhD Candidate - Vilnius University, Lithuania - Ghent University, Belgium

14h35 - 14h50

Digitalisation Trends in International Arbitration: Challenges and Opportunities

Luigi Cantisani - PhD Candidate, University of Warwick, Futura Law Firm, UK

Aygun Mammadzada - PhD, Lecturer, University of Bournemouth, UK

14h50 - 15h05

Applicability of Data Protection Laws to International Arbitration

Hamidou Tangara - PhD Candidate - University Sorbonne Paris Nord, France

15h05 - 15h20

Discussion

V. DISPUTE RESOLUTION AND THE FOURTH REVOLUTION : IS A TRANSFORMATION ON THE HORIZON?

15h35 - 15h50

Smart Decision-Making in Arbitration: Land of Opportunities and Danger

Manuela Grosu - Lawyer at KPMG Legal Toásó Law Firm, ELTE Law School, Hungary

15h50 - 16h05

Design of Blockchain Dispute Resolution Platforms and its Relation to Access to Justice

Cemre Çiçe Kadioğlu Kumtepe - University of Leicester, United Kingdom

16h05 - 16h20

Dispute Resolution for Smart (Legal) Contracts?

Dr. iur. Bişet Sena Güneş, Max Planck Institute for Comparative and International Private Law

Assoc. Prof. Dr. Pinar Çağlayan Aksoy - Bilkent University, Turkey

16h20 - 16h35

Discussion

16h35 - 16h50

Closing Remarks

GHENT
UNIVERSITY

FACULTY OF
LAW AND CRIMINOLOGY